

Prophecy – Aug 19th 2009 (Neil Dowling)

For My purpose is being brought to fruition in these days says the Lord. For even as you have gathered together I announce the unveiling of a greater gathering that I am bringing about. In this time, I am bringing to birth that which has been fashioned in secret and kept hidden until the time comes in which it will be revealed for all to see.

For I am bringing together from across this land pools - even as pools of Bethesda from where I will release My resources to this nation from and to My people, right across the length and breadth of this land.

For the cry has come again to my ears –the cry again to “Let My people go”. No longer will there be again be restriction and privilege given to certain people – but instead I am raising up My body to establish a new spectacle on the earth - an empowered church. This will fulfill what I have always intended – My bride in all her glory!

This will be a pool of My resource. I will raise up other pools of resource around this nation and around the world – however they will be established on only one premise – to “Let My people go.” I am about to do what has never been seen before – to establish pools of angelic visitation where My body can come, receive and take that which has provided and distribute it to the four corners of the earth. These pools of My resource will demonstrate My unity of heart, My compassion and My power, and the relationships between these pools will allow for the intermingling of virtues that will mark out each pool's intent and purpose.
